

Objectives Sheet

BFM 0050 - Planning, Programming, Budgeting & Execution

Course Learning/Performance Objectives followed by enabling learning objectives

BFM 0050.U01.01	Explain the Planning, Programming, Budgeting, and Execution (PPBE) process.
BFM 0050.U01.01.01	Identify the purpose of each phase of the Planning, Programming, Budgeting, and Execution (PPBE) process.
BFM 0050.U01.01.02	Identify the PPBE timeline using the Resource Allocation Process (RAP) chart.
BFM 0050.U01.01.03	Identify the inter-relationship between PPBE and the Defense Acquisition System (DAS).
BFM 0050.U01.01.04	Identify the purpose, the content, and the three major dimensions of the Future Years Defense Program (FYDP).
BFM 0050.U01.01.05	Identify the purpose of Major Force Programs (MFPs) and Program Elements (PEs) and their relationship to the FYDP.
BFM 0050.U01.01.06	Identify principal players, primary inputs, and primary outputs of the Planning phase.
BFM 0050.U01.01.07	Identify various activities and Components involved in submitting and reviewing the Defense Planning Guidance (DPG).
BFM 0050.U01.01.08	Identify the Planning phase timeline.
BFM 0050.U01.01.09	Identify the principal players, primary inputs, and primary products of the Programming phase.
BFM 0050.U01.01.10	Recognize the activities involved in determining the best way to satisfy objectives and fiscal constraints.
BFM 0050.U01.01.11	Interpret the Programming phase timeline.
BFM 0050.U01.01.12	Identify the reasons why acquisition programs may lose funding during the PPBE process.
BFM 0050.U01.01.13	Identify the significant issues that may alarm the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) budget analysts reviewing budget justification documentation.
BFM 0050.U01.01.14	Identify the characteristics of well written reclaims and impact statements.