CMI 207 - DCMA Multifunctional Support to NASA

Course Learning/Performance Objectives followed by enabling learning objectives

CMI 207.U01.01	Given several narrative phrases, select the statements that describe the importance of performing delegated contract administration (CA) functions.
CMI 207.U01.01.01	Identify the importance of contract administration functions performed on behalf of NASA.
CMI 207.U01.01.02	Recall the Contract Management Office (CMO) functional specialist's regulatory and policy authority and responsibility for NASA workload.
CMI 207.U02.01	Given several narrative phrases, select the statements that identify the relationship of DCMA with NASA's four mission directorates and ten centers.
CMI 207.U02.01.01	Select the statements that describe the Functional Specialist's relationship with NASA's four Mission Directorates and ten Centers.
CMI 207.U02.01.02	Match each of the ten NASA Centers with its description.
CMI 207.U02.01.03	Recall the roles of the various functions within NASA for determining requirements in delegations to DCMA.
CMI 207.U02.01.04	Recall the various DCMA organizational elements that support NASA work.
CMI 207.U02.01.05	Identify Functional Specialist's responsibilities with NASA.
CMI 207.U03.01	Given a scenario, apply the NASA Support, International and Federal Business Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Support, Workload Acceptance, and Contract Receipt and Review issuances to a delegation.
CMI 207.U03.01.01	Identify NASA support requirements contained in the NASA Support, International and Federal Business Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Support, Workload Acceptance, and Contract Receipt and Review policies/publications for which delegations are received, reviewed, and accepted or declined.
CMI 207.U03.01.02	Given several narrative phrases, select the statements that describe the requirements for delegation receipt, review, and acceptance.
CMI 207.U03.01.03	Given a scenario, describe the potential delegation errors/conflicts, the resolution process, and when needed, the process to decline a delegation.
CMI 207.U03.01.04	Identify the training and certification requirements for functional personnel supporting active NASA delegations.
CMI 207.U03.01.05	Given several narrative phrases, select the statements that describe delegation closeout procedures.
CMI 207.U04.01	Identify strategies to establish and maintain two-way communication.
CMI 207.U04.01.01	Given several descriptive phrases, identify requirements for external communication between DCMA and NASA.
CMI 207.U04.01.02	Identify strategies for communication within the CMO across functional and team lines.
CMI 207.U04.01.03	Recall the criteria for the effectiveness and timeliness of communication.
CMI 207.U04.01.04	Given several descriptive phrases, select the statements that best explain DCMA responsibilities to safeguard proprietary and competition sensitive information.
CMI 207.U05.01	Given a scenario, illustrate the requirements for planning and executing contract administration (CA) supporting activities detailed in the NASA delegation.
CMI 207.U05.01.01	Identify the various types of NASA acquisitions.
CMI 207.U05.01.02	Recognize the Contract Administration Services (CAS) delegation process between NASA and DCMA, including tools used to accomplish the delegation
CMI 207.U05.01.03	Given several descriptive phrases, select the statements that best explain the NASA requirements for an Agency Contract Administration Plan.
CMI 207.U05.01.04	Apply requirements to issue letters of re-delegation.
CMI 207.U05.01.05	Apply requirements for Corrective Action Requests (CAR ).
CMI 207.U06.01	Given several descriptive phrases, select the statements that describe the process of charging reimbursable direct labor hours in DAI.
CMI 207.U06.01.01	Select the statements that describe the purpose of accurate time recording in DAI/ECARS.
CMI 207.U06.01.02	Select the statements that describe accurate charging of reimbursable hours and charging errors to avoid.
CMI 207.U06.01.03	Select the statements that describe requirements for managing and reporting reimbursable hours.
